Floods Ebb as TVA Dams Divert Water; 15 Dead, Billions Damage

By United Press

Floodwaters that rampaged thru nine southern states, killing 15 persons, causing damage in the billions and leaving thousands homeless ebbed today under clear skies and a vast man-made barrier against uncontrolled waters.

Rains that sent muddy rivers spilling over their banks in the Appalachians and started swollen headwaters menacingly southward ceased over most of the flooded area and the raging waters were systematically diverted into non-danger areas by the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Disaster teams rushed into the silt-covered areas of Kentucky, West Virginia and Virginia where the waters dealt the cruelest blows, but farther south in Tennessee, flood control experts worked to avoid more suffering and property damage.

Dams Divert Water
Dams in the vast TVA system, built years ago to minimize flood damage in the valley spillway, successfully diverted the waters from swollen rivers into tributaries and lakes with a minimum of flooding.

As the flood waters backed away from the devastation farther north, it appeared that Kentucky was hardest hit. Kentucky Gov. A. B.

Chandler estimated damage at $1 billion and said as many as 10,000 families were left temporarily homeless by the high waters.

At least 15 persons were dead as a result of the floods. Kentucky counted seven fatalities, West Virginia and Virginia three each and one death was reported in Alabama and another in Tennessee.

The weatherman promised at least temporary relief. The forecast for today was for clear skies and no rain over the flooded area with the front moving across South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi. However, there was a threat of more rain in the stricken areas late Saturday night or Sunday and it was feared that more rain might spill the mighty Ohio River from its banks and cause still more flood damage.

Three Injured In Auto Crash

Three persons received treatment for injuries following a collision of two automobiles at 11:30 a. m. yesterday at the Routes 45-34 intersection near Sloan street.

State Policeman Adolph Sweat said that a car driven by Wendell Burton of Oak Forest, Ill., traveling south, halted at the stop sign and car behind him driven by Gladys Rita Daugereaux of Houston, Texas, crashed into the rear of his machine, knocking it about 70 feet.

Mrs. Daugereaux told officers she did not see the stop sign. Treated were Mrs. Daugereaux, who suffered mouth and chest injuries; Burton's wife, Jean, who suffered head and facial lacerations; and his mother, Goldie, who sustained injuries about the feet and knees.

Ike Agrees to Economic Aid For Saudi Arabia

WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower and King Saud today parted temporarily leaving their aides to work out a program of American military and economic aid for the king's desert kingdom.

The President and the oil-rich Saudi Arabian monarch recessed their talks until late next week after agreeing that they have increased the prospects of peace in the Middle East.

Informed sources said the President told the king the United States is willing to provide big-scale military and small-scale economic aid to Saudi Arabia. An arms agreement would end a long-standing U. S. policy against providing major military aid to Middle Eastern nations.

Officials Draft Plan

American and Saudi Arabian officials will work on the necessary agreements during the next few days. The President and king planned to meet again probably Thursday or Friday to review the results of the lower level negotiations.

Mr. Eisenhower flew to Augusta, Ga., aboard the Columbine III for a weekend of golf, planning to be accompanied by Defense Secretary and Mrs. Charles E. Wilson who are continuing on to Florida for a two-week vacation.

Saud headed this morning for a one-day tour of the U. S. Naval Academy at nearby Annapolis, Md. He was scheduled to address the midshipmen and attend the Navy-Duke basketball game.

Heard For Resort

He planned to return to the capital tonight and remain throughout next week instead of going to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., for a few days rest as originally scheduled.

The President and the king toasted each other and the cause of peace in orange juice Friday night at an ornate dinner at the swank Mayflower Hotel.

The tall, bearded monarch praised U. S. policies in the Middle East and called the President "a man who is far sighted, wiseminded and worthy of every appreciation."

Two U.S. Planes Crash, 8 Killed

ST. LO, France (UP)—Two four-engine U. S. "Flying Tankers" crashed in flames near this famed World War II breakout city today, killing at least eight crewmen, it was reported here.

U. S. Air Force spokesmen in London said two KB29 tankers—modified versions of the B29, the world's first atomic bomber—were overdue on a flight that would have taken them over the St. Lo area of northern France.

It was uncertain how many crewmen the planes carried. An announcement issued by the St. Lo hospital said eight victims had arrived there—"all dead or dying."

An unconfirmed report said there was one survivor.

French press reports said three planes were involved in the crash, but police said they knew of only two.

Hungary Expels American and Five Other Western Students

NICKELSDORF, Austria (UP) — American Richard Roraback and five other Western students reached the Austrian border today from Hungary where they were expelled for their daring escapades in connection with the Hungarian revolution.

Roraback said the Communists kept him in solitary confinement for three weeks—part of the time in a straitjacket because he refused to shave.

"I was treated like a criminal under arrest," he said. Roraback said he refused to shave because "my beard was the last remnant of my liberty."

He complained that the food was "terrible," but "in general, I can not say I was badly treated."

The six students, including a British girl, arrived at this Iron Curtain border point in a police escort from Budapest. They had been accused by the Budapest regime of charges ranging from smuggling out refugees to simple visa irregularities.

Four of the students were Britons who at one point were accused of espionage. The sixth was a young Norwegian who had gone into Hungary with Roraback to help smuggle refugees from Hungary's Soviet-dominated government.

The students were: Richard Meyer-Roraback, 26, Dobbs Ferry, N. Y. Today's government newspaper Nepszabadsag said in Budapest he admitted crossing the border.

Mother, Three Children Die in Fire

CHICAGO HEIGHTS, Ill. (UP) — Three children and their mother burned to death early today when an overheated stove turned their home into a roaring oven.

The victims were Mrs. Magnolia Thomas, 32; Rose, 9; Theresa, 3, and Charles, 2. Two other members of the family escaped.

Their father, L. T. Thomas, was taken to St. James hospital here in critical condition after he was helped from the burning building by firemen.

Fire officials estimated the damage at $5,000 and said the four-room house burned to the ground.

No Mansion Meals for Chapman When He Is Acting Governor, Castle Rules

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — Lt. Gov. John W. Chapman, who earns $12,500 a year, cannot get free meals at the executive mansion during absences of the governor.

Atty. Gen. Latham Castle issued the ruling Friday at the request of Chapman who wanted to know if the "emoluments" of his office included the privilege of eating at the mansion while he was acting as chief executive during out-of-state absences of the governor.

Chapman gets paid an extra $69.44 a day anyhow while acting as governor.

Castle ruled use of the mansion was a "personal privilege" granted the governor and his family and "it is my opinion that this personal privilege would not, because of its nature, be embraced within the term 'emolument'."

Moreover, he said, "it certainly was never intended that a temporary absence of the governor from the state, although it furnished an

All were taken to St. Anthony's Hospital here.

72 Injured in Tragedy During Blinding Storm

Airliner, Headed for Miami, Crumples
On Prison Island

NEW YORK (UP) — A four-engine, Northeast airliner, packed with 94 persons bound for the sunny South, crashed and burned Friday night in a blinding snowstorm.

Twenty were killed and 72 injured. The cause of the crash was a mystery.

The Douglas DC6A was headed for Miami when it pancaked onto Riker's Island, a city prison in the East River, which is a short hop over water from La Guardia Airport. The plane left there at 6:01 p. m. It crashed seconds later.

The Civil Aeronautics Board immediately ordered an investigation into the crash.

All five crew members and a stewardess making a test run survived. The pilot was Capt. Alva V. Marsh, who was suspended by the airline for 21 days following a crash in the East River on Jan. 14, 1952.

A congressional investigation into the crash was demanded by Rep. Steven B. Derounian (R-NY), who said he wanted to know why the takeoff was cleared "in a blinding snowstorm after several hours of delay."

Enroute to Miami
Officials said DC6A can carry up to 104 passengers. The 94 persons aboard the ill-fated plane included six children.

The Northeast airliner, a converted cargo plane leased from the Flying Tiger Line, never seemed to gain altitude, witnesses reported. It crumpled in flames on Riker's Island near the end of La Guardia Runway No. 4. Riker's is operated by the city as a prison for minor offenders.

The plane narrowly missed the city prison which houses 3,000 inmates. It careened onto an open area, cracked in the middle and burned.

About 40 of the prisoners helped in rescue work. Some carried the injured in their arms to the Riker's Island hospital. Officials had high praise for the convicts' work.

Account of Stewardess
"We had just got the safety belts on and the plane was still climbing," stewardess Catherine Virchow, 26, of Boston, said. "Then fire and everything at once occurred. I don't know if it was an explosion."

Northeast had begun its service to Florida only 25 days ago. The DC6A it rented from Flying Tiger was a converted cargo plane of a type used to bring refugees and Army personnel from Europe and can carry as many as 104 passengers and crew.

The crash was Marsh's third misfortune in the millions of miles he has flown for the airline. On Jan. 14, 1952 he crash landed in the East River near the scene of Friday's mishap while bringing 33 passengers from Boston. All passengers and crew were saved with only a few injuries and Marsh was hailed as the hero of this crash, but the Civil Aeronautics Administration suspended him for violating ceiling limits.

Marsh also was at the controls of a twin-engine Convair which whipped around during a landing at LaGuardia in 1953. Three of his passengers were hurt, but none seriously.

The crash Friday night was the first accident in which any passenger was killed in Northeast Airlines' history.

The CAB sent two investigators from Washington to aid three CAB representatives from the New York office for an on-the-spot investigation of the crash.

The plane had been held up since 2:45 p. m. EST by a swirling snowstorm that snarled airline traffic. It finally was cleared for takeoff and headed down the runway at almost exactly 6 p. m. It was due in Miami about five hours later.

A CAA spokesman at LaGuardia said that flying conditions at the time of the takeoff were "well above the minimum."

Miss Virchow said the flight was to have been one of her last because she was planning to get married.

"If I ever get over this," she said, "I'll stick to marriage."

Police Reveal Two Clues in Sisters' Slaying

CHICAGO (UP)—Police informed the public of two clues in the Grimes sisters murders today in the hope that they might receive outside help in the search for the killer of the two teenage sisters.

The discovery of an imported gold perfume atomizer and a gold eyebrow pencil near the bodies of Barbara, 15, and Patricia Grimes, 13, when they were found last Jan. 22, had been kept secret.

Police said their presence at the scene indicated they could have been used as a lure to attract the girls into a car on the night of their disappearance Dec. 28.

Authorities said they had made no mention of the two articles in the hope they could learn who purchased the expensive pieces. But police have failed to locate the source of the two beauty aids so Police Lt. Joseph Morris asked anyone with knowledge of who might have owned the articles to come forward.

Police still do not know the cause of the girls' death, or when it happened. They have renewed their search for the killer after Bennie (The Dishwasher) Bedwell repudiated his confession to the murders.

Cook County Sheriff Joseph D. Lohman denies that Bedwell was forced to sign the confession. He continued to hold Bedwell as a suspect and said he had a statement from a drinking companion of Bedwell that the dishwasher was with Patricia Grimes in a Skid Row restaurant.

work, activities, and observations at the University of Illinois Dixon Springs Experiment Station near Robbs in southern Illinois, prepared by the Station's staff).

Only last week we on the Station awoke one morning to hear a strange noise—the subdued roar of tumbling water as it flowed down field waterways and cascaded over rock-bottomed brooks. It was a strange sound because it has been more than a year since rain has piled up and run off beyond a mere trickle. It is on such a morning as this that we can look at our well-sodded hillsides and our fields with a heavy cover of grains and be thankful. Also, on such a morning as this we are woefully reminded of that late seeding made last fall—that seeding which has only a scattered fuzz of cover and pitifully few roots to bind and tie the dirt.

Winter Soil Losses
Lee Gard, soil and water researcher, warns that winter rainfall on ground with no cover crop
or on a thin, small wheat cover
may cause soil losses beyond imagination. These losses may be particularly high from rainfall on frozen ground or on ground thawed only a few inches. With such a condition, water can only run off and the two or three inches of un-frozen dirt quickly becomes saturated and flows over the frozen subsoil and down the hills as melted chocolate flows across a cooking pan. It is difficult to tell whether the water carries the soil
or the soil carries the water.

Straw Dams
It was in anticipation of trouble
that George McKibben, soils researcher, put a crew to work with manure spreaders in the blustery, zero weather of mid-January. On some of the late and short seedings of last fall, a very strawy manure was spread in bands across and around the hills to slow and break the mud flows that might result with top-thaw and rain.

Sorghums
Johnny Pendleton, University of Illinois crops researcher, told approximately 150 farmers meeting
recently at Marion that in tests
over the state the hybrid sorghums outyielded the open-pollinated varieties. It is about the same story as hybrid versus pollinated corn.

George McKibben found last summer, in tests on the Station, wide variations in yields of both hybrid and open-pollinated varieties of grain sorghums, but he reports that in general the hybrids yielded from 25 to 50 percent more.
In trials with hybrid and open-pollinated silage sorghums or forage sorghums, George found that the hybrids yielded about 50 percent more grain, but less total forage. He feels that, despite the Foreign trade has no small overall importance to our nation's agriculture. The American farmer always has had the means of growing more food and fiber than the nation's growing population has been able to use. In earlier days the ambitious farmer pushed into frontier areas where cheap, new land was available for development.

For him transportation to market was a problem to be overcome in disposing of agricultural production. From then until modern technology hit agriculture, the farming class formed a substantial portion of the nation's population.

More recently the number of farms and farmers has decreased in numbers, but the know-how to produce agricultural commodities
has grown rapidly—more rapidly than the population. Consequently, export of agricultural commodities in some form—either as raw products or manufactured material —continues highly important to the well-being of the American farmer.

Dr. Walter J. Wills, marketing specialist in the Southern Illinois University School of Agriculture, points out that nearly 11 percent of the farm acreage in the United States is used to produce such agricultural exports. Nearly nine percent of our farm income may be attributed to exports. The percentage is not so great, but in the total it amounts to a substantial quantity of dollars.

We export the following percentages of our total agricultural production of these commodities: tallow, 42 percent; flue-cured tobacco, 37; rice, 34; peanuts, 30; soybeans, 28; lard, 21; cotton, 16; barley, 11; and corn, 4. From a dollar standpoint, Wills says, the leading agricultural exports are wheat and flour, cotton, tobacco, soybeans
and feed grains.

There is no doubt that there are nations in the world whose people could use more of the agricultural commodities that the American farmer produces, but there are various factors that prevent larger purchases from the United States.
Many nations are short on the dollars that it takes to import from the United States. Their ability to import may depend upon the export of commodities for which our nation has no need, or which may adversely affect large groups of our people. Many factors enter into the problem of increasing exports of American agricultural commodities.

Government programs are a basis for 60 percent of the agricultural exports from the United States, Wills points out. These programs are used for various amounts of different commodities.
For example, government programs handled 56 percent of our exports of feed grains, 72 percent of our cotton exports and 16 percent of the dairy products exports.

More than 12 percent of our agricultural exports are to Japan.
Feed grains and cotton are important to this market.

The United Kingdom gets nearly 12 percent of our farm exports, emphasizing tobacco and feed grains.

It is interesting to note that our northern neighbor, Canada, takes nearly nine percent of our agricultural exports. Fruits and vegetables are the principal commodities bought. The United States supplies more than two-thirds of Canada's total agricultural imports.

The Netherlands receive much feed grains from the United States in taking nearly eight percent of our agricultural exports. About the same amount of commodities goes to West Germany. Here feed grains and fats and oils are important agricultural products imported.

Of specific agricultural commodities entering world trade, Wills says, the United States provides the following percentages of the total: grain sorghums, 93 percent;
cottonseed and oil, 80; lard and tallow, 75; soybeans and oil, 67;
powdered milk, 57; corn, 48; grapefruit, 44; tobacco, 29; wheat and flour, 29; and cotton, 22.

One of the first signs of over-eating disease is when affected lambs appear sluggish and listless and may separate themselves from the rest of the flock.

Numbers of wild game are directly related to food and cover
that is available.

Another BUTLER Building at Work

Standard BUTLER building

for Santa Fe Trail

Three quarters of both sidewalls on this Butler steel building are occupied by loading doors. Through these doors Santa Fe Trail keeps a huge—and growing—tonnage of freight on the move from trucks to trailers. Every bit of space pays its way.
Butler's strong rigid frame (not the sidewalls) supports the building. This makes use of banks of loading doors inexpensive, yet safe. And Butler bolted construction permits Santa Fe Trail to expand easily—at lowest construction cost.

Cairo Paper Says Eisenhower 'Might Invite' Nasser for Visit

CAIRO — The newspaper Al-Ahram reported today that President Eisenhower "might invite" Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser to Washington.

The newspaper said such an invitation might result from the forthcoming visit to Cairo of a U. S. envoy who is explaining the Eisenhower Doctrine to Middle East countries.

There was no immediate official comment on the report.

Woman Admits Embezzlement

CASSOPOLIS, Mich. — A tiny, quiet bookkeeper whose "delicate handwriting" channeled bank funds to her husband's failing business was in jail today awaiting sentencing on embezzlement of $30,664.

Pearl Beckwith, 39, head bookkeeper of the First National Bank's commercial department, told police she used about 95 per cent of the funds to bolster her common-law husband's dwindling fruit and vegetable trucking business during the past two years.

Leon Beckwith, 44, was to be arraigned today in Justice Court on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Mrs. Beckwith pleaded guilty to the embezzlement charge Thursday when she appeared before Circuit Court Judge Carl D. Mosier.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — A clash between Israeli and U. N. Emergency Forces (UNEF) and growing tension along the Israeli-Egyptian border lent force today to U. N. demands that Israel quit Egyptian territory at once.

The General Assembly begins weekend debate today on new, American-backed proposals to get Israel out of Egypt and take steps to maintain Middle East peace. U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. was expected to address the group at today's session.

The situation was given a note of urgency when the United Nations announced that a Swedish patrol of UNEF exchanged fire with Israeli soldiers near the Gaza Strip Friday morning. No casualties were reported.

It was the first clash involving UNEF and Israeli soldiers, although a Yugoslav unit complained earlier of Israeli mines. UNEF troops exchanged fire with Egyptian terrorists in Port Said shortly after the international force entered the area.

North Williford Baptist G. A. Girls Meet at Church

The North Williford Baptist G. A. girls met Monday at the church. The meeting was called to order by the president, Opal Garrison, with a prayer. The song, "We've a Story to Tell to the Nation," was sung by the group and there was a discussion on having night meetings, but no decision was made.

All girls were encouraged to work on their forward steps.

Those present were La Monn Jones, Opal Garrison, Dawn Hargraves, Beverly Vick, Carolyn Vinson, Jessie Brooks and Mrs. Naomi Jones. Some were absent due to illness.

Israeli, UN Forces Clash

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — A clash between Israeli and U. N. Emergency Forces (UNEF) and growing tension along the Israeli-Egyptian border lent force today to U. N. demands that Israel quit Egyptian territory at once.

The General Assembly begins weekend debate today on new, American-backed proposals to get Israel out of Egypt and take steps to maintain Middle East peace. U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. was expected to address the group at today's session.

The situation was given a note of urgency when the United Nations announced that a Swedish patrol of UNEF exchanged fire with Israeli soldiers near the Gaza Strip Friday morning. No casualties were reported.

It was the first clash involving UNEF and Israeli soldiers, although a Yugoslav unit complained earlier of Israeli mines. UNEF troops exchanged fire with Egyptian terrorists in Port Said shortly after the international force entered the area.

Civil Liberties Union Claims Bedell Rights Violated

CHICAGO (AP) — The American Civil Liberties Union charged that Edward (Bennie) Bedwell's constitutional rights were violated in his arrest for the Grimes sisters' murder.

The ACLU said Cook County Sheriff Joseph D. Lohman infringed on Bedwell's constitutional rights of due process of law and violated two Illinois statutes in holding the 21-year-old Skid Row transient.

The union said in a statement that Bedwell "was held at least 90 hours" by Lohman before he was brought before a magistrate and charged with murder.

Lohman declined to comment on the charge.

A spokesman for the liberties union said the organization does not at present plan legal aid in behalf of Bedwell, but added that Bedwell could "sue for damages against the people involved" in his detention.

CHANNEL SWIM: Lancers Will Be March Casualty; New Type Show

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK — The channel swim...

NBC-TV's "77th Bengal Lancers" is the umpteenth casualty of the current season. It'll be buried in March.

The outfit that packages "Oriskany" is pitching a country-type quiz show, "Pig in a Poke," at ABC-TV. Corn cribs will replace isolation booths and contestants would be asked to go the whole hog, it says here.

Buster Crabbe, sometimes known as "Captain Gallant," is preparing a new underwater adventure series for TV. No promotion for Buster though—it'll be called "Captain Fathom."

Milton Berle's new half-hour filmed show for NBC-TV, "Follow That Man," is budgeted in at a heady $60,000 per.

Frank Parker is cutting an album for Coral based on the tunes for which he received the most requests during his stretch with the Godfrey family... Pat Boone, who has been wooed by all three networks, is close to signing a pact with ABC-TV.

When Kate Smith takes over the Jackie Gleason show for a one-shot on March 16, it'll mark her 1093rd appearance on TV. Miss Smith also has chalked up 12,452 shows on radio.

Bordon Store

Income When Sick or Injured, Pension Benefits Are Not Subject to Tax

By RUSSELL C. HARRINGTON Commissioner of Internal Revenue Written for United Press

WASHINGTON (UP) — Income when you are sick or injured, income from dividends, and pension or annuity policy income are all subjects which continue to give taxpayers trouble in filing their federal income tax returns.

In this final article I shall try to answer the most frequent questions.

Sickness and injury: Accident or health insurance payments, and amounts you receive as compensation for your injury or sickness, are exempt from tax.

THE MEASURE OF CIVILIZATION

Some folks judge civilization's progress by the kind of houses they live in.

Others point toward the giant strides of science or industry—or the striking advance of music, art and literature.

Yet civilization is perhaps best measured by the kind of people it produces.

Picture a man who respects the dignity and rights of others, and who looks with compassion on human suffering. He is guided in all things by an abiding love for God. His moral stamina never ebbs. His spiritual courage grows stronger.

Multiply this man by the thousands . . . by the millions . . . and you'll see a civilization higher and greater than has ever existed.

The Church is the one great institution that devotes itself to the development of man's character and spirit. As long as it continues to thrive, we can expect our civilization to flourish and progress. Help extend the influence of the Church—give it your support, make it a part of your life!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

'Mission of The Twelve'

Matthew 9:35-10:25
MEMORY VERSE: "Then saith he unto his disciples, the harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest." (Matt. 9:37-38)

INTRODUCTION—Jesus stood down near Jacob's Well one day looking out toward the little city of Sychar. He saw the barley and wheat fields waving gently in the breeze. He said to his disciples: "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few." When he uttered these words, he was not thinking of the barley and wheat. He was thinking of the multitude of lost souls and the comparatively few soul winners.

The picture is true today in your city and mine. It is true around the world. The "harvest is truly plenteous." There are multitudes of lost people on every hand. It seems that there are so few labourers who really care.

I JESUS AND HIS TASK (9:35-36)

Jesus chose twelve men. He trained the Twelve and sent them out. First of all he set an example for them to follow. Here we find that he went about "teaching in the synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people."

Jesus shows us the importance of teaching and preaching. Every Christian today is obligated to do his share of teaching about Christ. The pastor can preach sermons from the pulpit, and the Christians can preach living sermons by the way they conduct themselves daily. What kind of a sermon is your life preaching?

II THE CHRISTIAN'S DUTY (9:37-10:8)

"But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them." That word compassion, when broken down means to suffer with. Jesus literally suffered with those multitudes. Why? "Because they were scattered as sheep having no shepherd; but these people turned away from him."

Notice how important is prayer when labourers are needed. I sincerely believe that when we need more workers in our churches today that we ought to pray for God to send those workers. If there is a job to be done, God has someone who can do that job. Remember, also, that God has never asked anyone to do anything but that He has already given them the potential talent with which to do that thing. Perhaps we should spend more time in prayer when we are short on help!

III JESUS—OUR EXAMPLE (10:24-25)

Here we find Jesus telling us that the path a Christian trods will not be an easy one. My mother has often said that: "God does not promise the Christian's life to be a bed of roses." That is true. Sometimes life for the Christian seems rather lonely. Sometimes he feels all alone, especially when friends turn against him because of a stand he has taken against evil. However, the Christian way is the best way. It is the happiest way, because it gives that "peace that passeth all understanding."

CONCLUSION—Jesus came to "seek and to save that which was lost." He chose and trained the Twelve Disciples. When he went back into heaven, he left the mission work in the hands of a few. His church has grown until it has engulfed literally millions of people. Our task, as Christians, is to tell others of Jesus. He will do the saving of their souls, if we do the witnessing.

Bull Dogs Lose Thriller to W. Frankfort, 66-61

Locals Sparkle in Second Half, Following Poor Second Quarter

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs were downed, 66 to 61, last night by West Frankfort at Davenport gym although they outscored their South Seven game opponents, 36 to 25, in the last half.

It was a miserable second quarter, in which the locals did not seem to be able to get off their feet, that spelled defeat. In that frame the Bull Dogs were outscored by Coach George Iubelt's boys, 23 to 10.

When the Bull Dogs went to the dressing room at halftime trailing 41-25, although Frankfort was without two of its regulars, Francis Florian and Ronnie Avery, it appeared certain that the Bull Dogs were going down into defeat.

But the spark that was evident in the Saline county tournament revived the last half and the local lads had the fans yelling as they pulled into victory distance of the Red Birds.

Frankfort had a little advantage the first quarter, which ended 18-15 in its favor. Then came the bad second quarter.

The third period saw the Bull Dogs outscore the Red Birds, 15-13, and then came the exciting fourth. At the outset Harrisburg put 11 points through the hoop while Frankfort was being held scoreless and the count was 54-51. Frankfort pulled ahead 62-53 and with a minute and 47 seconds left the Red Birds still led, 64-57. Stone at that point connected and Jim Cummins followed with two free throws to narrow the gap to 64-61 with a minute and a half left. But that was the end of the scoring for Harrisburg and Frankfort added a bucket with about five seconds remaining.

Bull Pups Lose

Both teams shot well from the field and Harrisburg outscored the Franklin county boys, 25 to 22, in field goals. However, Frankfort made 22 free shots in 30 attempts to 11 out of 20 for Coach John Dotson's Bull Dogs.

From the field, Harrisburg connected with 25 in 57 attempts for a good .440 percentage. But Frankfort was better, connecting with 22 out of 44 for an even .500.

In the preliminary tilt the Bull Pups lost to West Frankfort, 52-44. Frankfort led 13-9 at the quarter, 24-18 at the half and 41-28 at the end of the third frame.

The Bull Pups players and scoring: Maynard 8, Pickford 4, Wasson 0, Kane 6, Pavelonis 9, Stone 3.

Norris City Rallies to Beat Eldorado, 60-58

Norris City had to come from away back in the fourth quarter last night at Eldorado to gain a tie in regular time, then win a 60-58 verdict in overtime.

As the final period started Eldorado held a big 51-43 advantage, but then the Norris City defense went to work and held Eldorado to a mere 5 points while the visiting offense was free-wheeling for 13 markers and a 56-56 score.

With 30 seconds remaining in the overtime the score was tied 58-58, but two free tosses by Norris City's Dagley put the visitors on the winning side, 60-58.

Overton of Eldorado and McCormick of Norris City shared scoring honors, each with 22.

Eldorado will host Galatia tonight.

Junior High Loses 2 Tilts at Marion

The Harrisburg Junior high school basketball team closed out regular season Thursday night at Marion with a 71-58 loss. Marion led at the end of each period, 17-11, 32-31 and 55-47.

Earlier in the season, on the Harrisburg floor, the locals won a 13-point decision from Marion, 65-52.

In the preliminary game Thursday night Harrisburg's seventh grade team lost 52-25.

Harrisburg will be idle until Monday, Feb. 11, when the regional tourney will be played at Norris City.

Attacks Hands Carrier Mills First Loss, 51-50

Final Basket as Gun Sounds Gives Carbondale Victory

The Carrier Mills Wildcats were nudged from the ranks of the unbeaten Friday night by a fine Carbondale Attack team, 51-50. The game was played before a capacity crowd in the Carrier Mills gymnasium.

Talked of for weeks by fans of the area as the "game of the year" it was just about that with two mighty good clubs battling right down to the wire before victory was determined.

The game came to a thrilling climax with the winning shot in the air as the horn sounded. Carrier Mills' followers were still on their feet screaming over the apparent winning two-point shot by Vern Rollins when George Force came through with a long jump shot to give the victory to Attacks.

Early in the game Attacks rushed to a 12-4 lead, their biggest advantage of the contest, but then Carrier Mills rallied and at the end of the quarter Attacks was in front only 14-12.

Wildcats Lead at Half

Carrier Mills, with Rouse and Rollins hitting three baskets each, had a big 18 point second frame and at halftime the 'Cats were up 30-25 and were still leading, 42-38, when the third quarter ended.

As the final fourth frame got underway Rouse hit two free throws to extend the Wildcat advantage to 34-38. Then Willis put Attacks back in the game with two quick baskets, his only fielders of the entire game.

Rollins made a free throw and Reynolds hit a fielder and Attacks trailed only 45-44 with 5:30 remaining on the clock. Rollins again scored from under the hoop and the CM lead was 47-44.

With five minutes to play Rouse was whistled out on his fifth foul and Reynolds made a free throw to pull Attacks back to within two points.

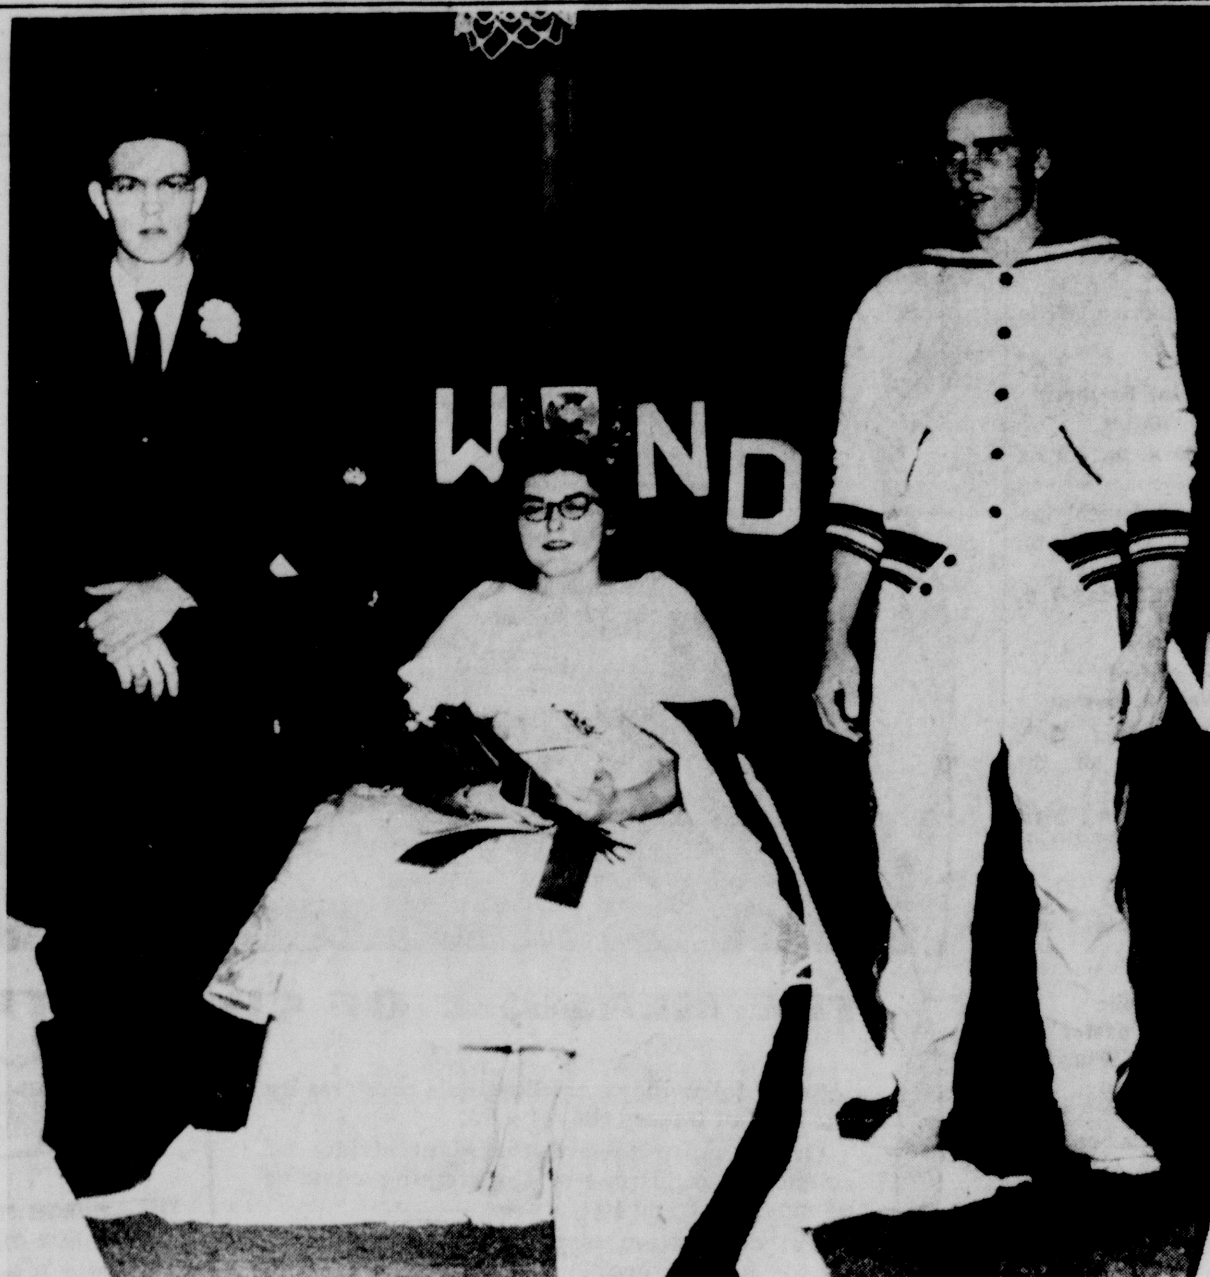

Thrills in Final Seconds

The score was knotted 47-47 with 2:39 to play. CM went ahead 48-49 on Fitts' free one.

The tension was terrific, with 90 per cent of the fans on their feet.

Force scored on a jump shot with :45 to play, putting Attacks on top 49-48. With 15 seconds to play there was a jump ball at the Attacks free throw line. Carrier Mills gained possession, passed to Rollins on a fast break and he scored with only :08 to go and CM was the apparent winner, 50-49.

But the thrills weren't over—in fact the BIG one was yet to come.

Miss Judy Browning Crowned Ridgway Queen; Team Loses to Rosiclare, 53-48

Miss Judy Browning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Browning of New Haven, was crowned Queen of Ridgway high school's first homecoming Friday night at the intermission of the preliminary and varsity basketball games.

The homecoming program began Friday afternoon with a play, then came the basketball games and coronation and the big day closed with a dance in the old gymnasium of the school.

Greater Egyptian conference leader, Rosiclare, kept its unbeaten league record by taking a close 53-48 decision from Ridgway, holder of second place in the loop standings.

At halftime Ridgway held a slim 33-32 advantage, but Rosiclare rallied in the final two quarters to win.

Norman Conger topped Rosiclare's scoring with 13 points. Roger Suttner, Ridgway's towering, high-scoring center claimed the game's point making honors with 21.

Following the preliminary game a stage and beautiful background was set up at one end of the gym and white cloth rolled the entire length of the gym for the Queen and members of her court.

With members of both the Ridgway and Rosiclare varsity basketball squads and the cheerleaders along the sidelines, the members of the court entered and walked to the throne.

Queen Judy was escorted by Carlos Holland and Pat Lawler, basketball captain, placed the crown on her head.

Ted Williams Fishes for $100,000 Contract; Denies Plans to Marry

BOSTON (AP)—Red Sox slugger Ted Williams is back in Boston on his annual fishing demonstration trip with the Sportsmen's Show and expects to hook a 1957 contract worth more than $100,000 while he's here.

The tempestuous fence buster, heavily tanned and fresh from a season of fishing in Florida, flatly denied reports that he plans to marry for the second time.

In response to questions about New York television and fashion model Neva More, Williams said, "Sure I know the girl. But there's nothing to that story at all. I have had it"—a statement he repeated and then carefully spelled out to newsmen.

Williams said he expects to sit down with Red Sox General Manager Joe Cronin to discuss his 1957 contract next week. The pact for baseball's highest paid player is expected to slice more than $100,000 out of Red Sox owner Tom Yawkey's checkbook.

Another famed slugger, Mickey Mantle of the Yankees, was forced to postpone his salary negotiations Friday because most of the team officials were tied up at the baseball meeting in New York.

The Chicago White Sox provided the only contract signing announcements. Right-handed relief pitcher Dixie Howell and catcher Earl Battey came to terms, giving the Sox 19 players under contract for the forthcoming season.

Logart Wins Unanimous Decision From Yama Bahama

NEW YORK (AP)—Welterweight contender Isaac Logart of Cuba, riding a wave of anger, said today he hoped his next Madison Square Garden opponent on March 29 would be Mexican Gaspar Ortega, "so I kin whelp heem like Yama Bahama las' night."

It was anger that made the fourth-ranking welterweight aspirant unexpectedly sharp and fast Friday night as he won a unanimous decision over middleweight Bahama from the Island of Bimini in their TV 10-rounder at the Garden.

Yama outweighed Logart 153 1-2 pounds to 147 1-2, and although the betting was at "even money," the former fishing guide from the Bahamas was out-speeded and out-punched by Logart in the exchanges.

Trainer Mundito Medina explained today, "Ike's been an angry fighter since that Mexican Ortega was given a bum decision over him at Boston in their return bout last year."
